Forum for Emotional Intelligence Learning (FEIL)
presents

Second Global Emotional Intelligence Forum

at TISS, Tata Convention Hall,
Deonar, Mumbai on
2nd and 3rd May 2009

Vision

FEIL is a world-class association of dedicated practitioners and academicians committed to sustainable development.

FEIL leverages education and training to enhance compassionate leadership and promote emotional literacy by incorporating EI in curriculum.

FEIL creates EI accredited professionals.

FEIL aims at developing and disseminating new knowledge.

FEIL offers services of specialists, teachers, trainers and researchers of global standards.

The context

In pursuit of our vision and mission FEIL is hosting the second Global Forum on Emotional Intelligence on the 2nd and 3rd of May 2009 at Tata Institute of Social Sciences. The first Global EI Forum was a resounding success with more than 500 participants from Industry and Academia.

The two-day conference had people from US, Europe and other parts of Asia talking and deliberating on the need for people-centric leadership. This conference gave birth to FEIL whose members represented diverse backgrounds yet were fired by a collective and common aspiration of sustainable development through responsible and caring leadership.

Aspirations of the second Global EI Forum:

1. To provide a platform for a large number of people from organizations and educational institutions to network and deliberate on the importance of Emotional Intelligence for superior performance and also the practical steps to make it possible.
2. Providing an opportunity to listen to world renowned gurus like Dr. Richard Boyatzis, Dr. Lyle Spencer, Dr. Robert Emmerling, Dr. Nelson Darwin, Sherry Immediato and Robert Rosenfield amongst a host of Global and Indian Speakers on the subject of Emotional Intelligence and its connectivity to exemplary performance.
3. Bringing together leaders of excellence for panel discussions to understand the themes behind motivation and teamwork.
4. Building bridges connecting academia and industry to ensure synergy between theory and practice. This would help us to build leaders of tomorrow.

Schedule of the event:

1. EI workshop: Assessing and Developing Emotional Intelligence Competencies in the Workplace for Superior Personal, Team and Organisational results.
 - At PHDCC, New Delhi on 27th and 28th April 2009
